PRESIDENT'S REPORT

THE year just passed has been one of steady growth and development. During this period some important features have been inaugurated which are enabling the Gallery to fulfil its function and obligations to the community. The successful carrying out of the Department of Education's classes and the functioning of the Saturday Morning Class is one feature.

The work of the Saturday Morning Class was extended into the summer, when classes attending three days a week during the holiday months were formed. These features are extremely important, interesting the child, as they do, in art appreciation.

Like all organizations having a large membership, the Gallery has experienced serious difficulties owing to the present financial depression. The Membership Committee would appear, however, to have to some extent solved the problem by installing a Membership Department which, we are confident, will gradually build up an interesting membership.

The financial position of the Gallery is sound and the work which the Gallery is now doing is equal to that accomplished by many institutions which enjoy a far greater budget. In the interests of progress, however, we need additions to our collection of pictures, prints, library and building, and in order to meet these needs we require a General Endowment Fund.

The most popular exhibition of the year from an attendance record standpoint was that of the Ontario Society of Artists. Our local art movement, the fostering of which has always been a Gallery policy, has developed into one of national importance and it is gratifying to feel that the general public are sincerely interested in it.

An important educational feature which was inaugurated this year has been the publishing of picture study material. This embraces a set of reproductions of twenty Canadian artists which presents in a brief way an historical survey of Canadian Art. These are issued firstly as coloured postcards and secondly on thin stock for schools and are the only Canadian picture study reproductions in colour available for schools.

THE BAY OF ISLANDS

BY FRANK CARMICHAEL

The market is swamped with American and European material and we are filling a much-felt want.

Unfortunately we have to record the passing of our friends each year. One in particular, our Vice-President, Colonel Leonard, will be hard to replace. He kept a warm place in his heart for the Gallery and Canadian Art and it is gratifying to know that a fine collection of pictures will bear his name through time. Another benefactor, in the person of Mr. Hume Blake, will be missed on our Council. A greatly missed friend who died in the past year was Mr. H. H. Fudger who built the Fudger Wing as a memorial to his son Richard. These two fine galleries stand as a lasting memorial not only to his son but also to his generosity and interest in the work of the Gallery.

Our deepest gratitude is due to the Mayor and Council for their un-failing interest in the work of the Gallery; to the various Chairmen and members of Committees for their unselfish efforts in the supervision of the activities of the Gallery, and to the Commissioner of Parks for his interest in keeping the grounds so admirably.

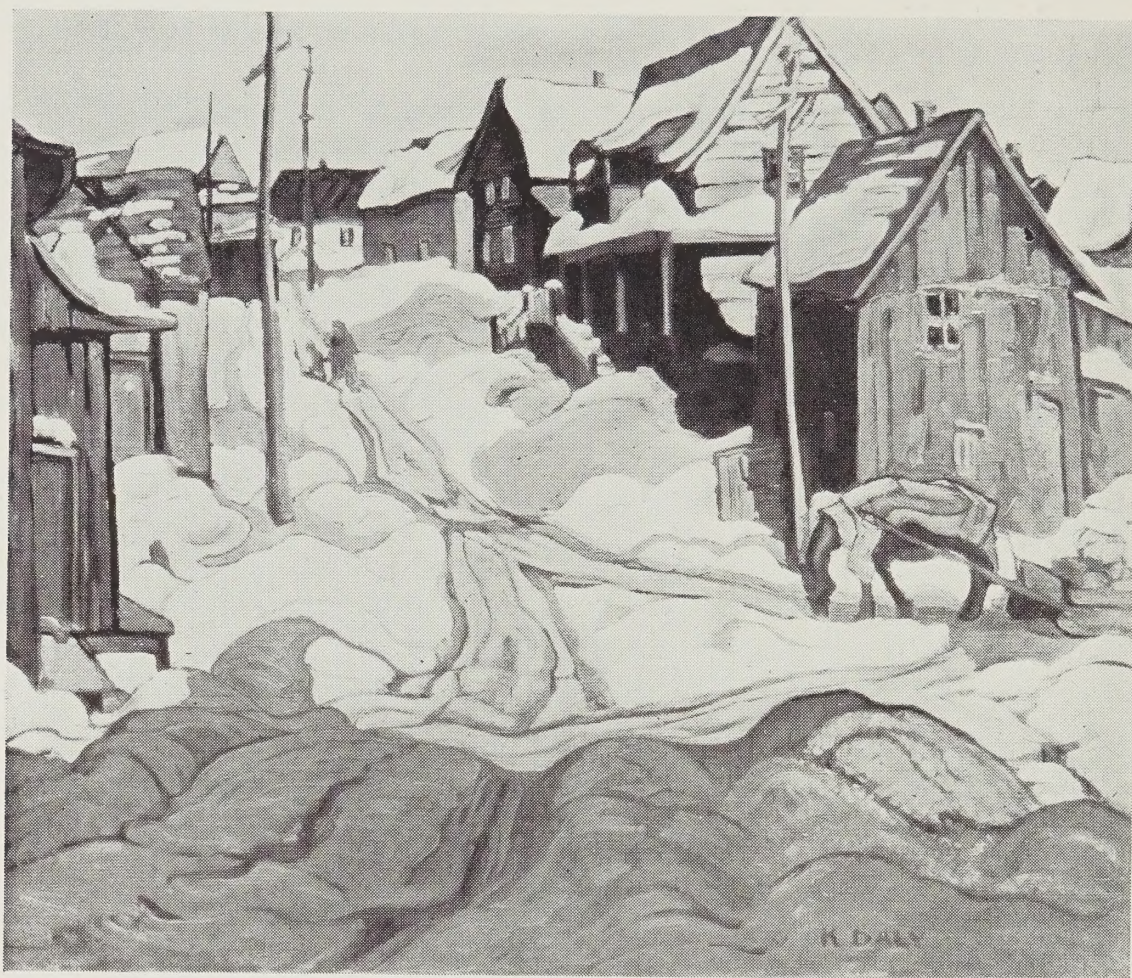

The Honorary Secretary will now read the detailed reports from the different committees.

EXHIBITIONS

Twenty various exhibitions were held during the year, these being as follows:—

THE ART GALLERY OF TORONTO

NOVEMBER . . . . .	R.C.A. Photographs of Buildings from Royal Architectural Institute of Canada Wax Miniatures by Ruth Burke
DECEMBER . . . . .	Little Pictures, O.S.A. Paintings by Rabindranath Tagore

The foregoing list emphasizes the variety of medium and subject and the very varied activity of our Canadian artists. It will be noted also that there is a great variety in the loan exhibitions which include paintings by British, American, French, Indian and Chinese artists. American painting of to-day was revealed by the two able exponents Leon Kroll and Ernest Lawson, supported by J. J. Lankes, the master of the woodcut. Most modern artists are influenced more or less by French Art and the February Exhibition presented an opportunity for making a comparison and to ascertain to what degree the Canadian artist is affected.

No group of etchers in the world to-day exhibit that degree of craftsmanship possessed by the British artist and it was with a great deal of pleasure that the Committee presented the Exhibition of Modern British Etchings.

When the Ontario Society of Artists and the Royal Canadian Academy exhibitions came round we realized the inadequacy of our Gallery space and consequently many promising artists are denied the privilege of showing their work. It is with a certain amount of pride that the Committee looks backward on the year's activity, realizing that with all the changing programmes the daily visits of classes have not been interrupted.

ATTENDANCE

The attendance for the year was 124,236, showing an increase of 10% over the attendance for the preceding year. The number of school children who attended the Gallery was 29,673. The record by months is as follows:—

January . . . . .	8,014
February . . . . .	12,785
March . . . . .	20,673
April . . . . .	12,231

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL WORK—1930

The educational activity for the year 1930 has grown far beyond the restricted meaning of the word as interpreted in reports of former years. Previous reports have shown lists of the names of lecturers and various dates. These are still important and the interest has been maintained in this phase of the Gallery's activities. But the year 1930 is notable in Gallery affairs as making a distinct advance in the attendance of organized classes of children by special arrangement with the Board of Education. The Art Gallery has taken a definite step forward in the direction of public educational service. A summary of these activities is given below, all of which have been organized and carried into everyday activity of the Gallery during the year 1930.

Daily visits of school children: Commencing in February, 1930, daily visits of children from the public schools of the city, in classes of about 40 children, became a regular plan. This was the result of a special deputation to the Board of Education in November, 1929. The Board co-operated in organizing this and appointed Miss Margaret Wilson, who supervises this work in the capacity of instructor. The plan cares for 4 classes per day and the number of children who have attended for the one-hour visit and instruction from February until December has been approximately 23,400.

Saturday morning classes for talented children: More than 400 children have been enrolled in a special class which is held each Saturday morning in the Art Gallery. These children, from the ages of 8 to 14, have been recommended by the public and private schools of Toronto and vicinity. They are arranged in groups according to their age and ability. The collections and changing exhibitions of the Art Gallery provide the material used for study and practice. The success of this effort to detect and conserve talent, to aid in the general appreciation of Art and an understanding of pictures, sculpture, architecture and the applied arts, has been unique and stimulating. Scholarships into the Junior Course of the Ontario College of Art have been given by the College to 25 children of 14 years of age. Miss Grace Johnston has been appointed to look after the work of the youngest children and a small staff of Art students has been engaged for this work on Saturdays, to assist the Educational Supervisor, who is in charge of the work.

Summer work with special classes from Settlement Houses and the Playground Association: During the months of July and August, special classes were held 3 days each week for children of the winter session who wished to continue, and by special arrangement with the Playground Association, groups of children were brought to the Art Gallery for instruction. Children from the University Settlement, St. Christopher's and Neighborhood House were also cared for in this way. Miss McCullough supervised this work.

A Members' Study Class was organized late in the year under the direction of Mr. Lismer and meets every Thursday morning.

University Extension classes in Art appreciation, classes from private schools, Library Staffs, Teachers' Associations, Travel Clubs, various women's clubs, School of Missions, Library Association, Association of Art Teachers, Normal School Teachers, Technical Schools, Art student groups and students from the various colleges of the University, all these are on the regular programme of educational effort.

The special evening lectures and musicals for the year have been as follows:—

HARISAY STRING QUARTET

FRED S. HAINES	Etching of To-day

Afternoon Lectures and Gallery Talks: The Gallery is indebted to the following individuals who gave their services at special afternoon Gallery talks: Mme. Salinger, Mr. Brigden, Mr. Hahn and Miss Long.

A special series of 6 lectures on "Great Artists" was arranged and given during February and March, open free to the public.

"Reynolds"	E. WYLY GRIER, P.R.C.A.
"Constable"	J. E. H. MACDONALD, A.R.C.A.
"Leonardo"	PROF. H. R. MACCALLUM, B.A.

The attendance at these lectures was unprecedented in the experience of the Art Gallery. The co-operation of the Department of University Extension in advertising and placing the posters for these lectures is gratefully acknowledged.

AFTER A HEAVY RAIN

BY HENRY KELLER

Loan exhibitions: Exhibitions of framed pictures were sent out to many schools and societies throughout the year. These collections have been sent to the John Fisher, Maurice Cody, Davisville, Hodgson, Eglinton, Allenby, John Ross Robertson, Rosedale, Deer Park, Jesse Ketchum and Hillcrest Schools. Pictures, posters, etc., have been loaned to the Normal Model School, East York High School, York Memorial Collegiate, Humbercrest School and Scarborough Public School. Various clubs and societies have borrowed pictures on several occasions, the Library Staff Club House, Beaches Library, Jewish Community House, University Women's Club, University Settlement, the Hart House Sketch Club and the Arts and Letters Club.

The Gallery collection of lantern slides is now a large one and has been in constant demand for schools and societies in the city and province. Acknowledgment with thanks is made to Mr. Brigden for the gift of slides, made from special portraits by Mr. Hammond.

The Educational staff has had many calls for lectures to schools and societies. The widespread interest created by the various activities has resulted in greatly added attendance and new members. The children's classes have developed a wider interest in the Gallery.

Many interesting Musical Evenings have been organized throughout the year. Mr. Fred MacKelkan, K.C., whose interest in the better appreciation of good music is well-known, has been appointed a member of the Educational Committee. His interest in and organization of the musical programmes of gramophone music for Sunday afternoons has added greatly to the pleasure of visitors.

Mr. John M. Lyle, chairman of the Educational Committee last year, retired after one year's valuable service and Mr. Charles S. Band was elected chairman in his stead.

The total attendance during the year 1930, due to educational effort, children's and adult classes, special afternoon and evening lectures, is very near 40,000 people. This is a proof that the Art Gallery is becoming more of a community centre for the city and is an indication to members and public of its civic value and service.

BUILDING AND GROUNDS

The Building and Grounds Committee have had a quiet year. The principal work carried out was the alteration to the Fountain in the Sculpture Court. A marble curb was built round the basin and the intervening space filled with plants.

It was found necessary to relay the front steps.

During the year new chairs for the Print Room were purchased as also tables and chairs for the tea room. There were also a number of minor repairs and alterations effected about the building.

MEMBERSHIP

The innovation of the year's activity has been the installation of a Membership Department, that is, a department with a paid clerk making a definite effort to secure new members with additional clerical staff for routine work. The work was started in the fall but for various uncontrollable reasons did not become operative until the last of the year. We look for a gradual development of our membership; the returns to date are gratifying.

Its aim is to extend its present collection and to exhibit, in the best possible way, the finest works of art which it can obtain. It also endeavours, by guidance and instruction, to aid visitors and thousands of children in the enjoyment and understanding of the collection.

Donations and bequests to The Art Gallery of Toronto are exempt under the laws of the Province of Ontario from succession duties. The legal title is "The Art Gallery of Toronto." Names of donators are permanently connected with their gifts.
